

Kia ora kautau with just over a week to go, all of our akomanga have been on their EOTC trips and returned safely. Our Ruma 1 ākonga (new entrant Rumaki) and Whaea MātaNiho will also be having their day by the pool with lots of splashing, kai and laughter on Wednesday. Once that's done, all of our classrooms will have completed their EOTC activities. Our thanks to our staff in particular, who continue to work tirelessly to ensure that all tamariki have the best learning experiences we can provide. Our unspoken, unheard heroes who go 'hundy' throughout the year, so that our tamariki can learn in a comfortable, Māori environment. Heoi anō, ki ngā kaimahi kura katoa – he mihi maioha, he mihi aroha.

He tukunga aroha tēnei ki tō tātau whanau kai Ngāti Hāmua e noho pani nei i raro i te kapua pōuri. E Wito, ko koe te whaea o ngā whaea i tiaki nei i te hunga rangatahi, i ngā kaumatua, i ngā tāngata maha o Te Rangitaiki e kore nei koe e warewarehia. Haere atu rā ki ō tātau mātua tīpuna e tatari mai ana mōu, ki tō tātau Atua e tuwhera ana i ōna ringa kia tau atu ai koe ki a ia.

End of Year Reports these can now be accessed through Hero. All student data has been uploaded to allow parents and whanau to see their latest results.
