PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Kia ora koutou

We have made it to the end of an excellent first term. I am very proud of our staff and students for their mahi (work) and commitment this term. Students' attendance, attitude towards learning, and stepping forward to try new things have been excellent. I have loved hearing the stories of students who have made accelerated progress this term. However, I am greedy and want to see even more next term.

Our team of teachers and staff has grown this year. I want to congratulate our new staff on their accomplishments this term. It is not easy joining a new school and learning how everything is done. We are full-on at this school, and new staff don't have much time to settle in before getting fully involved in school life. You have all made a great start to your careers at Pak Int.

Parent conference

Thank you to all the parents who attended the conferences. These were pretty positive experiences for most people involved. Your commitment to your student's education is displayed when you attend these sorts of events, and it can often be challenging to organise a busy life to be here. I want you to know that it greatly affects the teacher and student.

— Stephen Johnston, Principal

Attendance

You are probably sick of me talking about it, but I am proud of the positive start to students attending school regularly, i.e., 90% or more of the time. We averaged about 91% daily attendance for the term. This is an improvement on last year. We need this to continue to improve next term. Teachers are pushing hard, and children get behind really quickly if they miss a day or two of school.

Congratulations to Room 4, who had an iceblock day today for achieving 100%, ten times and Room 14, who had a pizza day for achieving 20 days of 100% attendance.

Next term is the time to fully take advantage of all the opportunities at an intermediate school. Be here every day, step forward, take pride in your work, believe in yourself, and push yourself a little harder. Small increases in regular effort lead to huge outcomes.

Have a great holiday. I look forward to seeing everyone returning next term, full of energy and ready for a great term.
