

Term 4, Week 3

1 November 2024

Kia ora e te whānau

We are so excited about Lamb and Calf Day—we know this will be an awesome community gathering. We appreciate that a huge amount of time and effort goes into rearing and caring for all the lambs, calves and pets. Thank you for the exceptional level of creativity that has gone into the Trophy designs as the home project—we are so impressed with what our learners have created with recycled materials and appreciate you supporting them with this.

Tomorrow at Lamb and Calf day there are activities for the whole family to enjoy. If you are bringing a calf or lamb, please enter through the Melford Lane gateway and park on the playing field. Judging starts at 10am and this is a great time also to pop down to visit the Enviro Group Plant Stall and the Friends of Hiwinui Bake Sale. Mrs Kool will be onsite with her ice cream truck so please bring some cash for this too. We will have free face painting and some games to add a rural feel to the day. Classrooms will be open part way through the morning so feel free to wander through and have a look at all the amazing creations. We have an awesome group of Hiwinui Alumni that are our classroom exhibit judges—they are all high school students that will take absolute pride in awarding certificates in each room.

Thank you for all the delicious baking that was donated for our Bake Sale. Wow, there are some gorgeous and delicious looking treats. We are incredibly grateful to our 'Friends of Hiwinui' fundraising group for organising this and for everything they do. Next Saturday there is also a school working bee where we are hoping to build our new basketball hoops and clean out the pool so we can get this ready for summer. Is this something you can help with?

Today we celebrate 'Aotearoa Teacher's Day' and I know you will join with me in saying a big thank you to our teaching team. We are very proud of our teachers and the dedication they show—they love bringing out the best in our learners!

We look forward to seeing you tomorrow at Lamb and Calf Day!

Ngā mihi nui, Erin

We have 13 students who have worked on three different items with our Learning Assistants. We can't wait to see them strut their stuff on the runway and show off their creations. The show, on 7 November, is open to the public and is just a gold coin entry.

Well done to Lydia who excelled in Wellington at an Equestrian Special Olympics event recently. Lydia did really well riding a new pony she had never seen or ridden before, and on Sunday was rewarded for her efforts coming second (silver medal) in working trail, second (silver medal) in equitation and first (gold medal) in dressage. We are so proud of you Lydia!

KA PAI KIDS

Room 1: Carolina, you are such a happy, energised member of Room One! You are always so excited about learning, and you have been a Pathfinder with your Lamb and Calf day creations. You pay attention to detail and always put in your best effort. Your pieces of art look incredible!

Room 2: Caide, you have made such a great start to school. You have an Energised attitude towards all your learning and show Awhi to your kaiako. You put in so much effort to your Lamb and Calf Day projects. Keep up the amazing mahi Caide.

Room 3: Alice, you are such a ray of sunshine and your energised personality has encourages everyone around you. You are so kind and have shown so much awhi as you and your friends have been Pathfinders with your Lamb & Calf day preparations. Keep shining bright, Alice!

Whā: Paige, every day you have the most positively energised approach to learning. You complete your work to an incredibly high standard, and you do it all with a smile. Keep up with your incredible approach to life at Hiwinui School.

Mangōpare: Zoe, you have blown my socks off this week! You have been looking for ways you can help around our classroom, showed your Pathfinder skills in persevering with shading in your artwork (it looks stunning, by the way!), and written a smashing writing sample, including some beautiful 'show not tell' phrases. You are growing into a mature, hardworking, giving, caring young woman. Keep being you and building these incredible strengths!

Pūkeke: Sid, It is so lovely to have you as part of our Hiwinui whānau. Your smiley face and chatty nature has been noticed and appreciated by many learners and teachers and we are so pleased you are here! You are going to be a fantastic asset to our Year 8 Leaders next year!

Learning Assistant Elise: Stevie-Rae, thanks for being amazing and focused on your learning in my Code group. You are such an energised learner!
