

Rongomai School

Empowered to Take Risks; Determined to Succeed

Rāpare 11 o Hakihea - Thursday 11th December 2025

Farewell to our Year 6s

On behalf of all our staff, I want to acknowledge and farewell our wonderful Year 6 students.

Watching you grow over the years has been a privilege — one we don't take lightly. You've brought energy, character, challenges, and plenty of laughter to our school, and we're proud of each one of you.

You leave us carrying the RICH foundations that have shaped your time here - Respect, Integrity, Courage and Heritage. These values have guided your choices, your relationships, and the way you've stepped up as leaders in your own quiet and not-so-quiet ways. Hold tight to those foundations; they'll steady you well as you move into the next chapter.

As you head off to intermediate, know that your teachers, support staff, and everyone who has walked alongside you are cheering you on. Your future schools are lucky to have you.

From all of us at Rongomai: go well, go confidently, and never forget the roots that helped you stand tall.

Once a Rongomaite, ALWAYS a Rongomaite!

Year 6 Graduation speeches

Katelyn Elia's Speech

Family, friends and of course, the faculty. Aloha, kia orana, and talofa lava. My name is Katelyn and I'm a proud Hawaiian, Cook Islander, Samoan, and student leader of Rongomai.

Firstly, I would like to thank the Lord above because without him, nothing is possible. Also, thank you to the faculty past and present for guiding me throughout the years. Although these 6 years have been quick. I have learnt so much from so many and have grown to be the best version of myself.

Today, we are celebrating our graduates who are starting a new chapter in our school life. No matter where we go or what we do in life. We will all be proud to have our foundations but by Rongomai. Just like my proud brothers before me.

My time here at Rongomai has been nothing but amazing. I met a lot of people that I'm proud to call my friends. Some here, some not. Year after year, I watched people leave and now I can't believe I am one of them. Some of my favourite times and proudest moments was performing in the Cook Islands group with my brother Clayton. It was always fun to learn and perform. But I think my singular most fun time was the Senior Camp this year. Especially the mudslide. A sad time I've had during my years here was coming to school and finding out that we have lost a great leader, a visionary, a role model and one of the most beautiful hearted people. We know the late Paeariki Johnson truly is the reason why Rongomai felt like a family. May you rest peacefully and watch us from above.

To my fellow Graduates. Congratulations for making it this far. Continue to carry the Rongomai name with pride. Good luck wherever you may go. Put God first and may you succeed in life.

To the wonderful teachers who managed to put up with me, from the gumby and fun Matua Ben, then the humorous and wonderful Maine Christina, to my dearest Maine Terangi, you are always a ray of sunshine for me as I come into school. You make me forget that I just finished fighting with my brothers for the front seat. I admire your work ethic and pride in teaching us kids our culture. You all have beautiful hearts and I am proud to have been your student. Thank you from the bottom of my heart, and of course, I wish you were still here to see this day because you played a big role in my life but I know you are watching us from heaven Whaea Paeariki. I miss you. I love you. We all do.

Once again, thank you to everyone here in attendance. My name is Katelyn Agnes Elia. I say these things as a humble daughter of God. Amen.

Sypres–Rylee Simeki's Speech

Fakalofa lahi atu and greetings to you all. My name is Sypres–Rylee. Today we are here to farewell our awesome Year 6 students of Rongomai School 2025. Rongomai is a place that has helped shape who we are today. Thank you to all our teachers and LAs for pushing us to be great, supporting us, and believing in us. Wherever we go, we will carry our Rongomai RICH Values with us. To our amazing whānau — thank you so much. We appreciate everything you do for us, and we love you all.

And now to my fellow Year 6s — we made it! Yaaay! We have created so many great memories this year. I hope you are all very excited for the next chapter. I wish you all the best, and don't forget our Rongomai RICH Values. Be safe, and God bless. Nga mihi nui and thank you.

Layton-Monroe Johnson's Speech

Kia ora, Kia orana, Talofa lava, Malo e lelei, heeey and warm Pacific greetings to you all.

My name is Layton-Monroe Johnson, and today... I officially graduate from Year 6. I know — please try to hold your applause until I've completed my solid as speech.

Standing here feels a little unreal. I started at Rongomai as a tiny 5-year-old who thought the junior playground was huge, the Year 6s were giants, and that teachers literally lived at school. Now here I am... the giant. And no, teachers still don't sleep at school — even though some of them act like they never leave.

But today is special for another reason too. Before I go any further, I want to honour someone who should have been here with us. Someone who loved our school, loved our community, and loved me — my Noni, our former principal, Whaea Paeariki. She wasn't just a leader. She was a light. She taught us to walk proudly as pasifika kids, to believe in ourselves, and to lift others as we rise. Even when she was busy running the school, she always had time for a laugh, a hug, or would give you one of her big smiles— a smile all of us knew too well. Even though she's not here today, she is still a part of Rongomai. Her strength, her kindness, and her belief in us stays with me — and with all of us — forever. This one's for you, Noni. I hope I've made you proud.

But I also want to acknowledge someone incredibly special who has carried our school forward when it mattered most — our current principal, Miss Faifua. It is not easy to step into leadership suddenly. It is not easy to take over a whole school while grieving the loss of someone who was not just a colleague, but a close friend for many years. And it is definitely not easy to be strong for everyone else when your own heart is hurting. But Miss Faifua did it. She stood up. She led us. She kept our school moving through trials, changes, challenges, and emotions that most people will never see.

She didn't ask to be put in that position so abruptly — but she took it on with courage, love, and determination for the sake of our students, our families, and our staff. And that is something we honour today. Miss Faifua, thank you for carrying our school through one of its hardest seasons. Thank you for leading with strength and heart. And thank you for believing in us, even on the days we made your job... very interesting.

Now... let me talk about the real reason you're all here: our chaotic, funny, legendary Rongomai journey.

I've had a lot of teachers and a lot of moments — some inspirational, and some just straight crack-up.

Like Matua Lui, when he'd growl at us in Samoan but sister here can't understand, so zero effect, sorry Matua.

Or Matua Vae, who's so competitive that his name rhymes with Pae who was also very competitive, and this should probably be assessed.

Matua Ben, no one claimed that he was fast but the video evidence from athletics definitely showcased that he was so fast, he came first to last.

Maine Terangi, always happy and always bringing the Kuki vibes 🥰 she's definitely the president of the Cooks in Otara.

Massive shout out to Mr Afemata who always bought me chicken and chips cos I'm obviously the fave student here (lol).

Whaea Lei is just Whaea Lei, no words, but love you. Whaea Claudia, the owner of everything, Ms Afemata who gives the biggest and best hugs, Whaea Sonia who helped me so much with my reading and writing during lockdown and Whaea Naomi who gives me an hour of peace every weekend from my aunty.

Matua Altar, who's always so positive and has the best candy floss, Maine Christina who always loves me and gave me my brother El Chapo who I love so much, even though he's chewed through many of my school shoes.

Whaea Marama whom I mastered my talent of eyebrow conversations with over zoom during lockdown. And low-key one of my faves.

The office staff, especially not the mean one but Whaea Trina who's just the best and not the mean one. Love you nanny T.

And finally again, Miss Faifua, who like many of the staff at Rongomai believed in me and who actually would roast my mum and have my back because if you know my mum, she believes in roasting your children.

Growing up at Rongomai has been more than learning. It's been laughter, attitude, hugs, chaos, culture, challenges, and memories that shaped who we are. I came here as a little kid who went to kohanga, who would follow my noni around and play up during staff meetings, to starting school just before lockdown. And now I'm leaving as someone who knows where I come from, knows my worth, and is proud of being a Pacific Islander, and my palagi intermediate will be surprised when I, an Otarian, is their president and head prefect.

To our staff: thank you for pushing us, putting up with us, and believing in us.

To our families: thank you for sending your kids to Rongomai, it's the best decision you could've made because it's the best school in Otara and because they got the honour of meeting me.

And to my fellow Year 6s: we survived it all — sports days, lockdowns, tests, loss and grief, the free school lunches and the mean office lady that's not Whaea Trina. As we move on to intermediate, remember this: We are strong. We are talented. We are mighty. And we are capable of amazing things. Rongomai will always be home. And we will always carry our people with us. Once a Rongomaite, Always a Rongomaite.

Thank you all so much. Fa'afetai tele lava, meitaki ma'ata, fakaauae lahi, and kia ora.

Final Quiz Phrase 🤔

The final phrase must have been extra tricky as no one managed to guess “Slip, Slop, Slap and Wrap.” This sun-smart reminder encourages us all to stay safe in the summer heat: slip on a shirt, slop on sunscreen, slap on a hat, and wrap on some sunglasses. As you head outdoors this summer, remember to take extra care so you don't get burned!
