

He aha te mahi i tenei ruma?

Kei te korero Maori, korero, korero, korero mai. We have been learning a mihi to share each day and building our confidence to korero Maori. We have also been learning about te Kiingitanga. We are learning about our new Kuini, Nga wai hono i te po. We are excited to watch her leadership as we grow too.

Ko Tuhetia te Kingi, moe mai ra e koro.

Our Seniors Say So... Read our recommendations

Ryder: I am reading "Predators Gold" the sequel to Mortal Engines. I would recommend it to anyone who likes to read adventures and who likes the movie (part1).

Wairata: I am reading "Gangsta Granny Strikes Again" by David Williams. Ben & his Granny are the naughty. I recommend it to people who like adventures and naughty character stories.

Eva: I am reading "The Ice Children" by Neville Ice. It is about Bianca saving her brother with a silver, sparkly magic book. I recommend it to anyone who likes to read adventure & magical books.

Remy: I am reading "Sunken Forest" by Des Hunt. It is about Matt Smith who is forced to attend a military style wilderness camp with a bunch of kids he hardly knows. I recommend it to anyone who likes to read adventure, danger and eco-science stories.

Myarrh-Jean: I am reading "Gangsta Granny" by David Williams. It is about Ben & Granny being naughty and always eating cabbage soup! I recommend it to anyone who likes to read adventure stories, about being naughty and silly stories.

Blessing: I am reading "Smile" by Raina Telgemeier. It is about Raina & her friends. Raina fell over and her two front teeth got pushed into her gums! I recommend this book to people who like funny, silly stories.

Aubrey: I am reading "Wings of Fire Book 2" by Tui T. Sutherland. It is about dragons of destiny! I recommend it to anyone who likes royalty & dragons Vienna: I am reading "Baby Sitters Little Sister", author Ann M. Martin. It is school photos day and Karen has to wear her pink glasses. It is a funny book.

Ngakau: I am reading "Diary of a Minecraft Zombie, Curse of the Stolen Diamond" by Zack Zombie. I recommend it to anyone who likes to read Minecraft, zombie adventures books.

Daytona: I am reading "Baby Sitters Club" by Ann M. Martin. If you like funny stories you will like it.

Strengthening Writing

Fairy Tales - We are learning to write our own fairy tales using Success Criteria to help us to use the features that Fairy Tales have. Can you name 5 of more features of a fairy tale?

Mihi / Pepeha

Our confidence is strengthening with daily recital of our mihi / pepeha through our tikanga mo te ata. As a whanau, recite your pepeha together - korero atu, korero mai!

Great

Korowai Class - Wrapped in Happy learning

We read everyday so we can learn our letters and our sounds. Talking about the books and the characters is very important!

Read in the holiday break too!! We have our learning packs ready!

'Encanto Reo Maori'

Te wiki o te reo Maori

We are learning about the movie Encanto and loved our trip to the big movies in Rotorua!

Amber: I liked going to the movies with my friends.

Thomas: I liked it when we got the popcorn!

Tiaki: The movies was fun!

John: It was good at the movies.

Peighton: The movies was fun with my friends.

Jahkaea: I liked it when Isabela found the green glass all about her.

River: It was a great movie. I really liked going with my school!

We are learning to say our mihi in the morning:

Ko _____ toku papa.

Ko _____ toku mama.

No _____ ahau.

Ko Kaingaroa Forest School
taku kura.

Ko _____ ahau.

John & Tiaki had outstanding uara/values when we went on our movies trip!

The holiday break is coming up and learning in the break is very important. Play basic card games like "Go Fish", "Snap" and "Memory flip".

Do counting activities – How many people are here, how many plates and cups will we need, what if 2 more people come for a kai? It helps us learn real maths!

Write a message or card to a friend or to one of the teachers!
