

Kia ora

Another week is almost done. I enjoyed going with rooms 10, 12 and 2 to the swimming pool for their lessons yesterday. I would like to thank our school staff for the support they give the children, supporting them with getting changed into togs and back into their clothes. I would also like to thank the Pool staff for their work with our students. They show lots of patience and perseverance in the pool, especially with the new entrants as they learn water skills and begin to swim.

Heads up.

Our new entrant classes are getting full. This year we have managed to keep all classes smaller than normal. Over the next month, I will be contacting some parents around a change of class in term 3. There will be some children moving from Rooms 10, 11 and 12 (Timatanga) to the middle syndicate (Tupuranga). No decisions have been finalised yet as to which class they will be going to. This also means a few children will move from rooms 1,7,8, and 9 to room 6. Thank you in advance for your support as we make this shuffle. We will transition the children so that any impacts are minimised and the children all see the positives of the moves.

Art

This term, classes are working on artworks that will be displayed at the art gallery in town as part of the Burns Memorial Art Exhibition. We are looking to send classes to the exhibition as well as contribute art to the displays.

Have a good Weekend
