

Week 9, Term 3

Kia ora Koutou Katoa, greetings to all Sherwood school and community families.

HB Cross Country

Johnny White and Annabelle Hunt will represent us at the HB Cross Country next Tuesday. I know that you will be wonderful ambassadors for Sherwood School.

Rippa Rugby Tournament

Please send permission slips/request for help with transport slip by the end of this week. If you need a hard copy please let us know. Linda sent the form out on SkoolLoop last week..

School Jacket Option

Please indicate your interest in a school jacket as was described last week. There is a sample hanging in the office, please come in and have a look. Our colour would be navy blue. The cost, regardless of size, would be $80 to $90. This includes having the Sherwood logo printed on the front and SHERWOOD printed across the back.

Health and PE Curriculum Survey

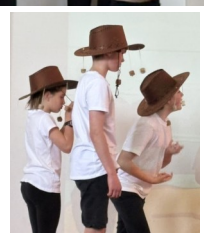

I have sent out (via email) a link to a survey to gather your thoughts on the implementation of the Health and PE Curriculum at Sherwood School. We are required to consult with families every two years. Please complete the Google Form by Monday 15th September, thank you very much to those who have already responded!! Anyone who puts their name on the form will go into the draw for a $50 Prezzy card

Sir David Hattenscarf and the Wonders of the World - our musical

We had a wonderful dress rehearsal on Tuesday and, although there are a few nervous people out there, we are looking forward to our two performances on Thursday; our matinee performance is at 1.30 and then there'll be another performance at 5.30. We'd love to see as many people as possible at both performances.

All students need to be back at school by 5.00pm on Thursday for the evening performance. If you are unable to get your child/children back to school by then PLEASE let us know, we will come and get them.

Students may wear muffy on Thursday.

Eggs for Sale - $8 per dozen

Teacher Only Day

This Friday is a Teacher Only Day.

Wheels Day

We'll have a wheels day on the last day of term, that's next Friday, 19th September. Students may bring bikes, skates, skate boards or scooters - anything wheeled that is self propelled. Helmets are required. We'll have sausages in bread for lunch for anyone who'd like them. There will not be nachos.

Have a great week everyone.

Mihi mahana, warm greetings, Christine

Sherwood School is one of six lucky schools nominated to host these incredible food trucks. Once all six schools have had their pop-along, the school with the highest total sales will WIN $1,000 — and we want Sherwood to take home the prize!

The Lost Library - Spring Reading Challenge

We have a really exciting Spring Reading Challenge happening at Central Hawke's Bay District Libraries called "The Lost Library". Kids can visit the library any time to collect their challenge packs - and for every challenge they complete, they'll earn special trading cards! . A poster is displayed at school. The challenge runs from now until the end of the school holidays in early October.
