Welcome to Week 9 of Term 2, 2025!

Last we we hosted a Community Consultation session with the focus on our 2026 - 2028 strategic plan. We had 10% of parents present & representatives from each class which was great. I know how bust we are as parents so if you'd also like to add your feedback I sent the slides in an email and will continue to collate your responses before sending a draft out for your review. Thank you to everyone who are participated in this process!

With so many values tickets we have a spreadsheet which we use to figure out which students have A) got the most values tickets in the school and B) in each class. The screenshot to the right are the Term 2 Pizza With The Principal winners - ka pai, congratulations!

Thank you to Mrs B, Camila and Rākau Class for organising and cooking popcorn for our Term 2 Famous People Mufti Day fundraiser. I'm pleased to say that we raised over $100 this term which gets split between the SPCA and our school.

From Pit to Palace

 Scripture: Genesis 50:20 – “You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.”

Have you ever had a day (or even a whole season!) where things just seemed to go from bad to worse? Joseph knew all about that. He was thrown into a pit by his own brothers, sold into slavery, falsely accused, and locked in prison. Not exactly the path most of us would expect for someone described as faithful and favoured by God!

And yet, through each painful twist and turn, God was doing something remarkable. Joseph didn't know what the future held, but he continued to honour God in every place he found himself — even when things didn't make sense.

Eventually, Joseph was lifted out of prison and given a powerful role in Egypt. God used him to save lives during a terrible famine — including the very family who had once betrayed him. The pit wasn't the end of Joseph's story. Neither was slavery or prison. Each season was part of God's bigger picture.

 Lesson:

God can use every season — even the painful or confusing ones — to prepare us for His greater purpose.

 Family Discussion:

Have you ever been through a difficult season where you couldn't see what God was doing at the time?

Looking back, can you see how He might have been preparing you for something greater?

 Prayer:

Lord, help us to trust You in every season of life — the joyful, the hard, and the confusing. Thank You that You are always at work, even when we can't see it. Help us to stay faithful and full of hope, just like Joseph. In Jesus' name, Amen.
