

Meaningfully Incorporating Te Reo and Tikanga Māori into Eveyday Life Outcome:  Māori learners will leave having experienced educational and cultural success as Māori and with strong and confident ngākau (heart, mind and soul) Non- Māori learners will leave as responsible and respectful Tiriti partners who value, respect, and where appropriate share indigenous knowledge	Enacting Te Tiriti O Waitangi Strengthening learning partnerships with whānau and Kati Huirapa Runaka ki Puketeraki What Māori succeeding as māori looks like, sounds like, feels like at Te Kura o Ōkahau Developing our kura’s cultural narrative in partnership with Kati Huirapa Runaka ki Puketeraki Developing a concise te reo language framework across the school
Whānaungatanga and Kaitiakitanga (Connection and Guardianship) Outcome:  To develop a deeper understanding and connection with their local environment and be able to identify local issues and begin to use the process of social action to take ownership of an aspect in their own locality.	Ensuring that the school is a safe, inclusive and free from discrimination and bullying Activily connecting, interacting and caring for our local environment Building a deep understanding of our unique location Using expertise within the local community Collaboration and engagement Being globally aware and culturally responsive