Term 2 Week 3

Kia ora Whanau,

It has been great to see our students making the most of the Tread Lightly caravan on school grounds. It has some exciting content and provokes in-depth thinking about caring for our environment. Thank you to those parents who have helped take care of groups of children so our classes can attend. We appreciate your time.

We have started Buddy Reading this week, where students are paired with another student from outside their classroom, and we spend 15 minutes, twice a week, sharing our reading. It is heartwarming to see this in action, with students seated together on the courts, reading aloud to each other. After we finish, we then go to lunch. It is a great way to end the mornings' learning.

I attended and watched Boot Camp on Tuesday morning, which had over 29 students participating. Mr. Vermeulen did a great job running this and students worked hard on the beep test and sit-ups. I enjoyed watching, this time anyway. It is a great initiative, thanks to Mr. V, so please ensure children come weekly. They will reap the fitness rewards as the term progresses.

Thank you to all those parents who were able to attend our conferences last week. 89% of our students had parents attend a conference, which was a fantastic turnout. Thanks for making the time.

Our term one attendance report came back from the Ministry of Education, and we had 74% of students attend school at least 90% of the time. This was a significant increase from Term 1, 2024, when we only had 59%. Awesome effort, parents!

As a reminder, as parents, if you have a concern, please approach the classroom teacher first, then Mr. Henderson. From experience, approaching other parents generally ends negatively. It is better to let the school look into matters and then advise actions accordingly. No parent should be approaching any other parent's child, especially during school hours.

I am looking forward to ECCS Netball next week, I am sure our students will enjoy the day.

ROAD SAFETY WEEK

I believe that road safety week is about getting to know all the road safety rules. Like if you are in a car look out for a person waiting to cross the road or stopping at a red light. But if you are the one trying to cross the road you will need to look and even listen out for cars. It is also about waiting in the correct stop for a bus and only driving on the road when it is open, not at night when it is closed. You also need to watch out for not driving when smoking, drunk, or sick. Those are the times that you are not allowed to drive .
