He Kura Te Tangata

Every individual has an inherent worth

Why Being Here Matters

He aha i hira ai te taetae

- Learning grows when tamariki are present
- Attendance strengthens identity, faith, and belonging
- Every day at Kura matters
- Mā te noho mai ka tipu te mātauranga
- Ka kaha te tuakiri, te whakapono, me te tūrangawaewae
- He mea nui ia rā ki te kura

Our Values/ Ō Mātou Uara

- Aroha - We are compassionate and understand each individual's unique situation; let us know how we can help.
- Whakapono - Trust us when times get tough; we will find a way to get through the challenging days.
- Rangimārie - Managing a busy household can sometimes be demanding; give the responsibility of being prepared to your tamaiti/tamariki.
- Whanaungatanga - A whānau that works together is organised and ready to go.

“Te Tamaiti, he Rama o te Ao”

‘Let their light shine so that people see the good things they do, and praise the goodness of our God’ Mathew 5: 14-16
