PRINCIPAL'S NEWS...

WELCOME WEEK 3

- * Kapa Haka Congratulations... What an amazing performance! For those of you unable to attend last Friday, I hope you watched the video posted on our school Facebook page.

A special thank-you to Shahnee Johnston and Beth Dalton for supporting our Matariki celebration. Their expertise is much appreciated.

- * Production... Miss J and Ms Dalton will also help us with our production songs next week. Just to fine tune our work so far.

Script reading continues in Room 1 this week.

Staff will be setting up the hall after school today, ready for our first whole school practice at the hall next Monday. PLEASE let me know if you have any planned absences over the next 3 weeks as we need all our students to practice together.

- * School Photo Day... is next Tuesday 8th August. Photos will start first thing in the morning. Sibling photos will be at 8.30am. Hockey photos will be taken at approximately 10.00am.

All photos will be ordered online, you will receive an email with your child's key code to order these. A copy of the information regarding this is attached

Hockey players please make sure that you have the CORRECT uniform. No uniform will mean no photo!! Hockey shirts will be handed out on the morning of the photo and must be returned back afterwards.

- * Home Contact Details... any changes to home address or phone numbers please contact school as soon as possible.

- * Board News... Bevan Brown, the Chairperson of our school Board of Trustees has resigned after seven years of service to our school. Bevan's contribution to the school has been enormous and we are most grateful for his work over the past seven years. A formal acknowledgement of Bevan's service will be made at the end of year prizegiving in December.

At our Board meeting last week, Natasha Cave was elected as Bevan's replacement. The Board Chairperson title has been renamed as "Presiding Member".

Our current Board members are Natasha Cave (Presiding Member and Finance), Philip Watkins (Property), Nicole Hurley, Hannah Bodger-Kearns, Liiwen MacRae. We always welcome new members.

Have a great week.
Pam Voyce.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

A bad attitude is like a flat tyre, you're not going anywhere until you have changed it!!

MONDAY 31ST JULY 2023

Terrific Term Three!

We are so pleased to be back at Playcentre after the holidays!

It's so beautiful seeing all our tamariki reunited, big smiles, high-fives & hugs were had all round.

Lara bought her Nana Karen along this week & she was a BIG hit. All the kids snuggled in next to her on the couch to listen to stories galore!

Kora's Dad did some deck repairs for us during the holidays while Maggie, Lochie & Toby completed essential repairs on the shelter during session. They used saws, hammers and nails!

We welcomed Millah & Harvey Deere along with their Māmā Gemma. These beautiful wahine bring our current role to twenty! What a cool group of kids & their Māmās who travel from near & far to connect each Tuesday morning.

Watch this space as we've got very exciting things planned for this term!

NEXT SESSION
Tuesday 1st August
