Kia ora e te whānau,

This week we welcome Aurelia and her whānau to the CTMS community.

We look forward to seeing everyone at the Goal Setting Conferences next week. This is an important opportunity for students, teachers and parents to find out more about your child and to discuss their learning needs and abilities. If you have any questions that you would like to ask, please write these down and bring them to the conferences.

Can all parents please check that you are able to see CTMS Events on Seesaw, Facebook (Clifton Terrace) or via email? Please get in touch with your homegroup teacher if you are having problems connecting to any of these platforms.

Have a lovely weekend - kia pai tō mutunga wiki!

Parent Readers needed!

Do you have a spare hour or two in your week to come and read with our early readers? We are looking for a couple of volunteers to support early readers to improve their reading skills and fuel their love for reading.

Come and have a chat with Irina if you might be interested. We are happy to provide some guidance to you, if needed. This is a really rewarding opportunity and has a big and positive impact for our learners!
