Kia ora tātou. Hello. Nǐ hǎo. Konnichiwa. Namaste. Namaskar. Selamat. Kumusta. Xin chào. Shubha dinam. Vanakkam. Néih hóu. Ayubowan. Hola. Merhaba. Talofa. Sawubona. Shalom. Pryvit. Aloha. Privet. Bonjour. Ciao.

Kia ora e te whānau,

Ko Atutahi te whetū tārake o te rangi.

Canopus is visible out in the open expanse of the sky.

(An outstanding individual)

When I think of outstanding people in my life, teachers are high up on my list. I remember my primary school teacher playing her ukulele and singing songs. I can't remember WHAT she taught but I definitely remember HOW she made me feel. Her beaming smile and loud laugh always made me feel warm and happy! A high school teacher who rode to school on a motorbike and let us watch movies in English class - so cool! Atutahi is the Māori name for Canopus, one of the brightest stars in the sky. Like Atutahi, teachers can shine their light to guide students along their learning journeys. I wonder who your outstanding teachers have been?

This week we farewell Tina & Caitlin, our teacher trainees. You are now part of the CTMS whānau and we wish you all the best with the rest of your studies. We have no doubt that you will be great teachers!

I hope you have set aside June 13 to come and DISCO with us! The Student Council and the CTMS Parents & Friends group have planned a FaBOulous evening of fun.

Have a lovely weekend, whānau!

A few weeks ago, our Year 8 rangatahi attended the World Vision Junior Youth Conference. At this conference, they were encouraged to take action to reduce food poverty in the Solomon Islands.

Kahikatea will be participating in the 40 Hour Challenge from 13-15 June 2025. The challenge is to go OFFLINE (no digital devices) for 40 hours. We invite any Kauri and Kōwhai students who may want to accept this challenge to join us!

More information about the 40 Hour Challenge can be found here.
