Kia ora e te whānau,

Kia ū ki te pai, kia whai hua ai.

Hold on to what is good, and good things will follow.

No matter how difficult life can seem, there is always something to feel grateful for. Today, CTMS was buzzing with energy as a group of parents worked hard to transform the downstairs learning space into a fab-boo-lous and spooky setting. Students and staff are really looking forward to a fun night! We are grateful to the parents who have donated their time to organise this amazing night. We are also grateful for parents who donated goods to contribute to three raffle baskets.

The 40 Hour Challenge kicks off today. Some of the CTMS students have accepted the challenge to go OFFLINE for 40 hours (no digital devices!). Proceeds from the Spooky Disco will be donated to World Vision to help reduce food poverty in the Solomon Islands. This reminds us to be grateful for clean water, food to eat and a comfortable house to live in.

This week we farewell Tina & Caitlin, the teacher trainees who have been working in Kauri and Kōwhai. We are grateful for their contribution to the CTMS community and wish them all the best with the rest of their studies.

I am especially grateful for weekends to be spent with whānau! Have a lovely weekend, everyone!
