UNIFORM STANDARDS 2027

Middle School West Auckland has clear uniform expectations, and all students are required to dress accordingly.

Girls Uniform Standards

1. Hair may be worn loose but must be tied back for sport, cooking, and technology classes.
2. Only plain studs/sleepers may be worn as piercings.
3. Wearing of Taonga is allowed provided it is worn in a respectful way.
4. No excessive makeup is to be worn while in school uniform.
5. T-shirts under the uniform are allowed but must not be visible.
6. Girls may wear black dress pants (not jeans, activewear, or track pants).
7. Black stockings may be worn under the uniform skirt or shorts.

Boys Uniform Standards

1. Hair must be kept tidy.
2. Only plain studs may be worn as piercings.
3. Wearing of Taonga is allowed provided it is worn in a respectful way.
4. T-shirts may be worn under the school uniform but must not be visible.
5. Boys may wear long black dress pants/trousers (not jeans or track pants).

Shoes and Socks

- School shoes must be completely black, including the sole.
- Sandals must be dark-coloured and have a secure strap around the back.
- Socks must be plain black.

(Shoes may be provided through KidsCan if available.)

Hats

- Hats may be worn outside only.
- They must be plain black or navy blue with no logos or labels

Sport

- Students must wear their complete school uniform for all sports activities.
- A hat is recommended for outdoor sports and activities.
- Sports shoes may be needed depending on the activity

Wearing the school uniform correctly is a sign of pride and reflects the high standards of our school.
Our aim is to provide a uniform that is comfortable, practical, and looks smart.

If you are unsure about any aspect of the uniform standards, please arrange a meeting with the Principal for clarification

If your child consistently wears incorrect uniform, they will be issued the correct items, and the cost will be charged to your account
