SOCIAL JUSTICE WEEK

Let's Build Peace Together! Puritia te rangimārie!

Through respect, faith and love, building and strengthening relationships to bring justice and peace that will last.

This week we have been gathering together each day to pray, listen to scripture and explore ways we can build peace into our lives and in the world, in practical ways. The students have really enjoyed working in their house groups. Tuakana teina.

Monday's Focus

Build peace through kind words and actions.

Building peace through prayer- te pupuri i te rangimārie mā Te karakia

Tuesday's Focus

Build peace through respect - te pupuri i te rangimārie mā Te whakarangatira i te tangata

Wednesday's Focus

Build peace through Solidarity – Whakawhānaungatanga

Thursday's Focus

Building peace through change.

PRINCIPAL'S AWARDS

These students have shown dedication to the writing, reading and art this week. Congratulations Hakopa, Ranger, Eden, Hunter, Lexi, Adelaide, Evelyn and Lauren.

SPORT REPORT

SPORTING ACHIEVEMENTS

Brodie received a scholarship for dancing and Jayda has been selected to dance with the New Zealand Ballet.

Netball

Congratulations to our netball players on their successful season. St Joseph's B Grade team won their grade. Best player over all for year 7 Azaleah. Quelan and Lillian were part of the team who won the A Grade competition. Well done girls, you make us proud.

Rugby

Congratulations to Gus, Kase and Levi who were capped for the Ross Shield Team last night.
