Term 4 Week 1 Newsletter 10 October 02525

From the Principal's Desk

Tena Koutou Katoa

Welcome to our new whanau and Noah in Rm 4, our new Entrants Tiare and Broly in Rm 1.

Earlier in the year we set up a Teacher Only Day with the Ministry of Education for our Full Staff to undertake training around UBRS *Understanding Behaviour-Responding Safely* (UBRS)

The training covers:

- Legal & ethical frameworks

- How to recognize stress and distress

- Preventative and de-escalation techniques

- Safe application

- The rights and duties of Teachers in managing challenging behavior

- Emotional risks for students/staff

UBRS is a Teacher Only Day on Friday 17th October. Our school will be closed

Term 4

There is plenty happening in Term 4.

Body Jam/NW Dance New Date

Thursday 16 October at the Baptist Church

Hikio— Year 6 students Camp Hikoi—students will bring home a notice

Meeting Wednesday 15 October in Room 7 at 6.30pm

Show day coming up—Exhibition Day

Teachers are busy with their classes, getting items prepared for Exhibition Day. Make sure you have this day penciled in Friday 31 October

Athletics

On Wednesday Ms McLeod and I attended around personal development around Athletics, run by Sport Northland. It was a fun and informative evening. We have also started our school preparations for our school athletics day in November.

Basketball

We have also entered a team to the West Zone Yr5-6 Basketball competition, Mondays at Dargaville High School.

Hats

With summer around the corner we encourage our students to have a potae on during play times!

Selwyn Park School Board of Trustees

Wishes to let our community know and supports there is a Strike Action Scheduled for Thursday 23rd October

Selwyn Park School will be closed for instruction

Sport was a winner

AB's too good for Oz (Roll on Northern Tour)

Silver Ferns has a big challenge with OZ

NRL well done Bronco's. Test match League now, go the Kiwi's
